"A Good Day To Die"

Sank to my knees when the man said Jesus saves
Dropped my coin in the plate when the man said pay
And the sky is calling and I think today's the day
A good day to die

Scrawled on the wall is a sign says God is dead
Can't seem to stop this revelation song in my head
And the sky is falling and I think today's the day
A good day to die

One way one truth I just don't believe it anymore
One law one rule I just don't believe it anymore

Staked to the cross with a fistful of coffin nails
Thrown to the wolves in the end cause it's all the same
And the sky is crawling and I think today's the day
A good day to die
