"Taken Apart"

Would you like to know me
Come a little closer
Would you like to see me
Maybe come inside
I'll never open up the door
That's been closed for so long
I'll hide myself away
And never see the face I know
Taken apart never wanna know
Never wanna see never wanna be
Now I think I can hear you
No I won't answer
Everything I hide from
Is now growing nearer
The plastic that surrounds me
And the fire that has sparked
Will consume me alive
All the way down to the spine
Taken apart never wanna know
Never wanna see never wanna be
Taken apart
Look at what I am
See what I've become
Do you like what you see
I struggle for control
I mingle with the nameless
Looking down upon the frowns
In a sea I'm with the faceless
Taken apart never wanna know
Never wanna see never wanna be
Taken apart
