

Souls At Zero "Inside A Scream"

Visit "Inside A Scream" on MotoLyrics.com

Sky is coming down all around me
Lost somewhere in the middle below
Beneath the surface the eyes surround me
Sit with the man that no one knows
The time will come to me again and then I'll know
I'm deep inside a scream that never grows
Stare into the eyes of frustration
Nothing is as real as it should be Still with each day that passes me by

Lost in the time that confuses me
The time will come to me again and then I'll know
I'm deep inside a scream that never grows
Come on let me shine with some permission
See the pieces fall in front of me
Harder to deny is my suspicion
Just to dress it up out in the rain
