The deeper that I get
The more the fear grows
I feel the pleasure from within
Heal the scars that remain
See Iâ¹m standing to close
To what I am
Iâ¹ll neve realize what I could be
I never will
I know more I know
I know more I know
Close enough to the edge
My feet they drag
It helps to keeps me down inside
Where I belong
Now Iâ¹m trapped in the shell
Of another man
One more time is all that bleeds me
Iâ¹m not to be
I know more I know
I know more I know
I know what itâ¹s like to want and never have
I know what itâ¹s like to live and never be

I know what itâ¹s like to touch and never feel
I know what itâ¹s like to see and never know
The deeper that I get
The more the fear grows
In the dark my hands take flight
Now I can feel the wind rise
Now Iâ¹m free of the shell
Of another man
Now I realize what I could be
And someday I will
I know more I know
I know more I know
I know what itâ¹s like to want and never have
I know what itâ¹s like to live and never be
I know what itâ¹s like to touch and never feel
I know what itâ¹s like to see and never know
