Woh-ooh
Wish I may, wish I might
Get your love, get things right
Baby, you're the one thing that I might never have

And God knows when, God knows why
Maybe now till I die
But there's only one thing I am sure for now
There was never us somehow

Just one stare from you and I melt like ice
You make my heart beat faster and it feels so nice
Just one smile from you, takes my breath away
And when I look at your face, it simply makes my day

Oh, it hurts me when you're with another
But I have no right 'coz I'm not your lover, oh-woh-uh

Wish I may...

Walkin' home with you gives me happiness
I think my world would stop to give me just one kiss
You say that we're just friends, to me it's just alright
It makes my heart grow fonder when you're out of sight

Oh, it hurts me when you're with another
But no one's gonna take your place, oh-woh-uh

Wish I may...

You are my sunshine, baby
You are the world to me
But only in my mind
And I won't stop pretending

I wish you were my baby
To love and comfort me
But only in my heart
And the feeling's here to stay...

Wish I may, wish I might (woh-ooh)
Get your love, get things right

Baby, you're the one thing that I might never have

And God knows when, God knows why

Maybe now till I die

But there's only one thing I am sure for now

It's the one thing that I'm ever sad about

There was never us... somehow

Woh-ooh

There was never us... somehow
