Hello again, can I help you remember
Why we're here and what we're fighting for We've seen the best and the worse of each other
And you're relentless and you search for more

Take a minute, put your heart where your head is Take another to collect your thoughts
Final question is this really all worth it
Or are we simply tearing this apart

Falling over once again, [incomprehensible]

I can't tell fact from fiction, to me it's all the same
You keep creating fiction that's not enough to make me stay

Lets take a step back and do this the right way
'Cause I've been waitin' for a chance to speak
Don't get me wrong I'm not trying to lecture
I hate to argue when I'm love [incomprehensible]

Just lately I've been having this feeling
I'm not the only name that's on your mind
Thinks it's best that we both go our own way
And forget about this wasted time

Falling over once again, [incomprehensible]

I can't tell fact from fiction, to me it's all the same
You keep creating fiction that's not enough

I can't tell fact from fiction, to me it's all the same [Incomprehensible] creat some fiction, I can't tell fact from fiction

I can't tell fact from fiction, but you don't seem to care
Instead create some fiction, that's not enough

I can't tell fact from fiction, to me it's all the same
You keep creating fiction, I can't tell fact from fiction

I can't tell fact from fiction, to me it's all the same
You keep creating fiction, that's not enough to make me stay
