In a meadow, flowers all in bloom
We were walking, it was May or June
I kissed your face and you kissed mine
Spring nor Summer, ever felt so fine

But then you just fade away
I wake into a winters day

Flower beds - of yellow, white and green
The sun is shining, - sorrow's but a dream
We were meant to be here, - love it's true
In this garden, all the world is new

1st Chorus:
In that garden we were free
And we loved so peacefully
Now my love, she is so far away,
I wake into a winters day

Now my love, she is so far away,
I wake into a winters day

Now I, cannot wait to sleep
For heaven shines, until I wake and weep
We were holding hands, the flowers danced
Happier than any old romance

2nd Chorus:
In that perfect sky we fly
And the birds they sing on high
In that garden of my dreams
Flowers dancing with the trees

I believe that dreams are like Heaven,
Still, I wake into a winters day.
