"Something New"

If you're feeling like you need some motivation
A new way to get along
We've found a blend
To keep you safe in song

We've got it oh so concentrated
Got it moving through our bones
This connection's underrated
Never gets old

You desire
Then I'll inspire a few
To try a taste of something new

And it's making me sick
I can feel it on my left side
Creeping closer every inch

To say I'm sore would be an outrage
I'm sitting safely in my skin
I feel this free ride's headed somewhere
At least I'm hoping

You desire
Then I'll inspire a few
To try a taste of something

And I've grown tired
Waiting for your move
Give up, don't pretend

Something left to pull us through
And just float away for good
Live this life the way we should
Just go

You desire
Then I'll inspire a few
To try a taste

I've grown tired of waiting for your move
Give up, don't pretend
