Put sapphires in your deep green eyes
To see the truth that lies back down
Back down inside
Burning trees will fade on face
Unborn child will rise
Will rise back down inside

You thought it came for reason
You thought it will be easy
But it wont
It wont

Pull the trigger
Swallow the cube
Cut yourself to pieces
And flames in mouth
Aching words
Darkest thoughts
Dig the naked dirt and eat
Smell of x-ray bones on the screen

Put your head down on my knees
Watch the cranes back down
Back down inside
Forget all you have just seen
But remember it's me inside back down

Pull the trigger
Swallow the cube

Put your head down on my knees
Watch the cranes back down inside
Put your head down on my knees
Put it down

Pull the trigger
Swallow the cube
Cut yourself in pieces
Watch the cranes back down inside
