"Time Is Not Your Friend"

You gave them most of your time
They gave you most of their life
No more kindness, no more sign
Like dead men you don't know why
Hey time's not you friend
It won't make anything of you
All your thoughts must not
Vanish for everything new
I know you are so selfish
A lot of people tried to keep
One or two nice words you did

What a loss, what a pity
Nobody to believe in
Oh I wish I had known it
Before I've shells on me,
On my sensitivity
I don't listen to you now
Your words cannot please my heart
And I won't worry about
What you'll say to make me cry
