Come and take me back to tomorrow, I was tempted by my own refrain, Stolen tales and moments where we lay, Unfold this, endless mysteryÂ... Stolen tales and moments where we lay, Unfold this, endless mysteryÂ... I feel this moment, And it's shooting through my veins, One way dimensions, For the two of us to playÂ... Conjure emotion, On the fast track to your heart, Creative intervention, In the backseat of your carÂ... With a lot of kissing, Beating time, Steaming tricks, And all those crazy nights, I'll hide in here, And seek me out, Say my name, And oh just scream it loudÂ... Come and take me back to tomorrow, I was tempted by my own refrain, Stolen tales and moments where we lay, Unfold this, endless mysteryÂ... Endless mysteryÂ... Well, I feel it's cold, But I'm bursting into flames, Rolling out the finest visions, Our shadows playing gamesÂ... Come and take me back to tomorrow, I was tempted by my own refrain, Stolen tales and moments where we lay, Unfold this, endless mysteryÂ... And it doesn't matter where we came, I was tempted by my own refrain, All our roads lead to the same way, Unveil the days we used to playÂ... And I feel it growing everydayÂ... It's growing everyday, It's growing everyday, It's growing everydayÂ.... Come and take me back to tomorrow, I was tempted by my own refrain, Stolen tales and moments where we lay, Unfold this, endless mysteryÂ... Endless mysteryÂ...
