tell me, is there something i can't do?
or are you just too hung up to get scewed? i've got it all but you know i gotta have some more so let it fall 'cause i really don't care anymore well do you do you don't you want to make a fool of yourself?

do you do you really wanna be like somebody else?
(no, i'm not afraid to blow my cool, never been afraid to blow my cool)

tell me is there something i should hide love to have a laugh when you put me aside limitations try to tell you how to act but they're too jealous to notice when they overreact so, do you do you want to make a fool for yourself well do you really want to be somebody who's got to be someone who just don't wanna be?

i've been a senile man, living in a garbage can i'm still a cartoon animal i still make friends with everyone so do you don't you wanna make a fool of yourself or do you do you really wanna be like somebody else?

well do you really wanna be somebody who's gotta be someone who just don't wanna be and make a fool of yourself?

(no, i'm not afraid to blow my cool, never been afraid to blow my cool)
