"Independent luxury"

(Remember)

Remember how it all used to be

(Remember)

Remember how it all used to be

Well everybody wants to be, in independent luxury

Everybody wants to be, the enemy

A remedy for independent luxury

(Remember)

Remember what we all used to say

(If ever)

If ever we could find a better way

Well people find their proper place

I'm trying not to lose my face

So remember what we all used say

Well everybody wants to be, in independent luxury

Everybody wants to see the enemy

A remedy for independent luxury

Well, it's better to burn out than play

It makes no difference anyway

Just remember, if it ever comes your way

That everybody wants to be, in independent luxury

Everybody wants to see, the enemy

A remedy, for independent luxury

The enemy

A remedy, for independent luxury..
