and so he finally got it made it couldn't end up a better way he killed his friends and his family his former girlfriends just had to leave

he never saw it as a crime
the one and only of a kind a true reflection of his time he was a legend in his mind another challenge to face the world uptight regression of editing words a bisexual chavivist pig no one looked at you the way he did and so he let you do the twist an equality that didn't exist he just had to let you down

a legend in his own mind
