"Nevermore"

Nevermore
Everybody's knockin' on your door
Nevermore
Everybody wants to know what for
There's a million ways to make it sway
If you roll it for another day

Nevermore
Everybody's climbing on your walls
Nevermore
Everybody wants to see you fall
There's a million ways to step aside
When the situation wants to die with you?

Nevermore
Well, everybody wants to have it all
Nevermore
Everybody's waiting for a call
Well, there's a million ways to make it sway
So let's roll it for another day
And belong for evermore?

(oi oi ooo?.)
Ahhhh?
