So what now my little blue eyed son?
What can I do to turn you on?
Recorded history, repeat undone
To find new ways to own a car
Every story makes the same old end
And every road is your to gain
What meets the eye is hard to understand
It's okay, you're fine now

'Cause you are the beginning of another time
Yes, you are the beginning, the only friend of mine

Welcome home my little blue eyed son
The evolution's on the run
We had our ways, now here's a different song
A golden age to walk upon
So rise and shine for a brighter day
Don't let your fear destroy your fame
Just leave on sunset till you know the way
With you, to find out

'Cause you are the beginning of another time
Yes, you are the beginning, the only friend of mine

You are the beginning of another time
Yes, you are the beginning, the only friend of mine

You are the beginning of another time
Yes, you are the beginning, the only friend of mine

The only friend of mine
The only friend of mine
The only friend of mine
