How are you feelin'
Do you feel okay
'Cause I don't

It keeps me reelin'
Will I ever be the same
No I won't

It's a cold day in a cruel world
I really wished I could have saved you
Then who would have saved me from myself
Right now, well, I could use a stiff drink
To kill the pain that's deep inside my bones

Have you been dreamin'
I don't dream at all
I have nightmares

Memories careenin'
Have you come to kill what's left
Of my smile

There's no vacancy in paradise
I really wished I could have saved you
Then who would have saved me from myself
Right now, well, I could use a stiff drink
Kill the pain that's deep inside my bones
I really wished I could have saved you
Then who would have saved me from myself
I really wished I could have saved you

I'll never forget you
I'll never forget you
I'll never forget you
I'll never forget you

I really wished I could have saved you
I really wished I could have saved you
I really wished I could have saved you
I really wished I could have saved you
