blank stare
disrepair
there's a big black hole gonna eat me up someday someday
fades away
like a memory - or a place that you'd rather be some place
lost in space
itch in my head that's telling me somewhere somewhere out there anywhere I don't care get me out of here

if I could feel
all the pins and the pricks if you were real
I could take what's apart and put it back together

this will come true help me get through
into you
dig deep dig deep dig deep dig deep
all I can do
driving me through
into you
dig deep dig deep dig deep dig deep

one track
got you on your back your skin speaks up but your lips couldn't say it right now I know somehow we could take the chance and we could make it make it
right here make it all disappear everything that we've been missing missing
you make me feel
that there's a part of me that I want to get back again

make this come true

dig deep dig deep dig deep dig deep
all I can do
pushing it through
into you

driving on through
you're slipping through I'm coming to

we could become
two into one
leave this behind
over and done
everything new I'm getting through
into you
