Here they come, here they come
Here they come and they might as well
Too many birds in my confusion now
Now they'll circle over this house till we take them in

You show me a sign
To rise up from the world we know
And she's strung out on life
He soon rolls his teeth
Spilling out from a mouth fit to overflow
Back into me

She moves and it's fire underwater
Speaks of its flame she speaks my name
Well they all really want you
If only you that wanted them

Lights move in the chalk lines
Chains that define who I am
Here we are again, how could I have seen
Always she's driving, how could I have known
Right through the strangest calling, I should have known
Straight through the sound gramarye I've found
See how she's driving me down

Straight from the sound
She's seen as a bright sun to anyone
Hollow and mined
With the weight of the world
Trailing out till the last train
Discovers me
Alive on vine

She moves and it's fire underwater
Speaks of its flame she speaks my name
As you move in a chalk line
Change in the dream that I am
Here we are the same

I used to see something in the idea

But only once did my hands reach
Anything beautiful
Now she's turned away
And I, ooh

We move in its fire, show me a sign, fire underwater
Speaking its flame, it speaks my name
She proves, soon roll its teeth, the liar
On every one of them, we are the same

Lights move in a chalk line
Change in the fire who I am
Here we are again, how could I have seen
Always she's driving, how could I have known
Right through the strangest calling, I should have
Straight through the sound gramarye I've found
See how she's driving me down
See how she's driving me
Always she's driving
Back through the strangest calling
Straight through the sound
Gramarye, I found
See how she's driving me down
