Baby, baby don't try to play me you know something's wrong that's why I'm not talking to you, baby, baby don't even fake it you have broke my heart and there's nothing that you can do

I tried to call you just the other day and your own sister told me someone taking my place so you wouldn't come to the phone she forgot to put me on hold and I can't believe what I heard, what I heard in my very own words.

Chorus: How could you call her baby, how could she be your lady thought you were mine, thought I was yours. How could you call her sweetheart how come you're breaking my heart how could you be so wrong

Baby, baby hear what I'm saying I am not your fool you should see me now as gone baby baby must think I'm crazy I will not come back I feel I have been to wronged don't try to call me cause I don't have the time I'll be much much too busy hanging out with friends of mine, oh, if we meet in the streets you should not even bother to speak cause I sitll here those words in my head those are some words I will never forget.

Chorus:

Boy you owe me an apology, just don't look for forgiveness from me and I tried my best to understand but I've done for you all that I can. If I ever see you in the streets just forget that you ever knew me cause I still here those words in my head those are some words I will never forget
