"Mary Without Sound"

mary go round
i'd like to see you when the summer sun sets down straight from the pages into memories that hang around i can't believe that there is nowhere you can go and not be found without sound

from the pages
of the morning
when you mentioned you're worth less to me

hand over hand
the pages turn
the pages without sound turn on empty hands tonight will end without sound

hold back the hand me downs and bring back the bright sound head for the razor broken bottle hangman runarounds time for the message to return with the sender unsigned and without sound it's a battle you can't win it's a battle you lose
