(And the lights go off)
(And the lights go off)

NOWHERE!

I don't always recognize me
Not even my own face
I can't take the ups and downs
So I have to take these pills

And the lights go off
And then I turned around
I got to see your face
As you were falling away
And you looked just like me

I've disconnected
I'm standing in the middle of nowhere
Where nothing's real
I'm stranded in the middle of nowhere

There are some things I just can't control
They're so deep within
And just when I feel I'm ok
And you pretend you're me

And the lights go off
Then I turned around
I got to see your face
As you were falling away
And you looked just like me

I've disconnected
I'm standing in the middle of nowhere
Where nothing's real
I'm stranded in the middle of nowhere at all
There's something wrong
I can't feel the insides of my life
There's something wrong
I'm lost in the middle of nowhere at all

(And the lights go off)
Lay down with me
Don't promise anything
(And the lights go off)
Just lay down with me
I can't promise anything
(And the lights go off)

I've disconnected
I'm standing in the middle of nowhere
Where nothing's real
I'm stranded in the middle of nowhere at all
There's something wrong
I can't feel the insides of my life
There's something wrong
I'm lost in the middle of nowhere at all
