There are so many reasons that I find to run to you
Cos there's so little loving in my life, now I am wavy
And thinking about it I want things back how they used to be

There is no way round it, nothing good comes easily
So much between us and we both know that it's wrong
So I keep on waiting till I am back where I belong

Chorus

So here I am all by myself thinking of you nobody else
There is a feeling inside and as hard as I try it just won't go away

Are you finding it hard it all on your own
Having to face each night alone
Knowing that you are the one with the love that I need
And I miss you more each day

So many feelings emotions running away with me
Cos it's you that I believe in and I love this one so deep
So much between us and we both know that it's wrong
Now I keep on waiting till I am back where I belong
Back where I belong

Chorus

Back where I belong

Chorus to fade
