One More Time
Performed by Lil' Ray

Never had time for the celebration
Singing like a woman when you're six years old
Never got to dance at the graduation
Didn't want it, didn't need it, she was on the road

No letters from home
We just kept moving on
We were all alone
Together

So many miles, so many places
Music pulling like an undertow
Leaving smiles on all the faces
They were living the songs she wrote

Simple stops along the way
No one knows the price we pay
For the dream
For the dream

People came from everywhere
And they all wait for her
To sing her songs
One more time

So many miles, so many places
Music pulling like an undertow
Leaving smiles on all the faces
They were living the songs she wrote

Simple stops along the way
No one knows the price we pay
For the dream
For the dream

People came from everywhere
And they all wait for her
To sing her songs

One more time

And forever in my mind
This will always be
She was the world for me

I no longer weep for her
All that's left is a need for her
To sing her songs
One more time

What I wouldn't do
To hear her sing her songs
One more time
One more time

If I could only hear her sing
One more time

What I wouldn't do
What I wouldn't give to hear her sing
One more time

One more, one more time
