She's burnin out on apathy,
Unsure of where she wants to be,
If she could change the world i think she's rather sleep.
Eighteen and feeling out of place,
Frustrated that she can't be late,
>Knee deep in disillusion up from them to stay.

In time you will learn to stand upon you feet,
cuz only in the movies can you replay every scene,
untill it comes out clean

Moved to a lower reside dorm, she's got no friends to call her own.
Still can't get used to living far away from home.
So bored to death from being bored.
Ambition seems to go ignored.
Her disposition is decaying at the core.

In time you will learn to stand up on your feet,
cuz only in the movies can you replay every scene
until it comes out clean.

All things are good and some are bad, it's really what you make of it, You're locked inside a world that's planned out just for you

She's buring out on apathy,
Unsure of where she wants to be,
If she could change the world
I think she's rather sleep
In time you will learn to stand up on your feet, Cuz only in movies can you replay every scene,
until it comes out clean,
Just wait some time, you willl learn to stand up on your feet
Because only in the movies can you replay every scene
Until it comes out clean
