Go now, if you want it
An otherworld awaits you
Don't you give up on it
You bite the hand that feeds you

All alone, cold fields you wander
Memories of it cloud your sight
Fills your dreams, disturbs your slumber
Lost your way -- a fallen knight

Hold now; aim is steady
An otherworld awaits you
One thousand years--you ready?
The otherworld it takes you

Go, go into the sand and the dust and the sky
Go now--no better plan than to do or to die
Free me, pray to the faith in the face of the light
Feed me, fill me with sin -- now get ready to fight
You know you will
You know you will
You know you know you know you know that you will
You know you know you know you know that you will
You know you will

Fight fight fight (x4)

Hope dies and you wander
The otherworld it makes you
Dreams they rip asunder
The otherworld it hates you
Free now -- ride up on it
Up to the heights it takes you
Go now if you want it
An otherworld awaits you
