"Rain City - Turin Brakes"

Opened my eyes had a dream last night that both my arms were broken,
Evening time,
Help me now or hold me down,
I feel the world is tumbling,
Spiralling down

Oh my love I can't let go,
Somethings wrong I can't let go,
Natures cruel she laughs at me,
As I make my way through the century,
As I slowly turn to house dust,
Tumbling down,
The rain comes down like a victory,
In sheets of shining memory,
Over and over,
Circling around,

Oh my love I can't let go,
Somethings wrong I can't let go,
Natures cruel shes laughs at me,
Almost too much for my heart,
When it rains,
Oh tears my soul apart,
When it rains,
It rains so slowly
In the city,
Where I'm from.
