Sometimes it seems like you're falling
Falling out of the sky
Sometimes it feels like you're slipping
And running out of time
And that's when you've gotta throw it all away
All of the things that people say
And all of the doubts that fill your mind
Don't belong there

Chorus:

Whatever you do, you'll never be wrong
As long as you reach for it
When you reach for it, nothing's to far
And it's never to long, as long as you reach for it
You can dream on it, everywhere it's there

Sometimes I can be stupid
I can get out of line
But most times you know what I'm doing
It's not like some big surprise
Oh and I, I just wanna to make you understand
That bailing on me isn't in my plans
And all of the doubts that fill my mind
Don't belong there.

Chorus:

Whatever you do, you'll never be wrong
As long as you reach for it
When you reach for it, nothing's to far
And it's never to long, as long as you reach for it
You can dream on it, everywhere

There's so much distance
Between what you want and what you've got
But if you really want it, it's your life
So, you gotta try
You've gotta fly

Whatever you do, you'll never be wrong
You can reach for it
You can reach for it

It's never to far and it's never to long
As long as you reach for it.
You can dream on it, everywhere
All you gotta do is reach for it(Everywhere)
All you gotta do is reach for it

Chorus:

Whatever you do, you'll never be wrong
As long as you reach for it
When you reach for it, nothing's to far
And it's never to long, as long as you reach for it
You can dream on it, everywhere
