The day I first met you,
Oh well, I thought it quite funny,
Your eyes were so damn blue
Your smile was a drug, your style was money

What does it all mean?
Too find someone that makes a crackhead sigh,
Got the players on her team,
Oh how could I smile when all she did was say "hi"?

The one day when he is gone,
I'll get my chance to ask you out,
And then I'll show my colorful life,
My colorful life

I'd like to be like you,
With a rep like yours my little hunny,
I'm not sure what I can do,
Just know that I aint no false money.

What does it all mean?
To try so hard to get the right words out,
Oh I wish I could come clean,
I've given my all, but I have my doubts

That one day when he is gone,
I'll get my chance to ask you out,
And then I'll show my colorful life

That one day when he is gone,
I'll get my chance to ask you out,
That one day when he is gone,
I'll get my chance to ask you out,
That one day when he is gone,
I'll get my chance to ask you out,
And then I'll show... my colorful life

My colorful life.
My colorful life.
