Ooh yeah!

Street mean tough and sweet boogie woogie shuffle,
Somebody somewhere's jumping into trouble;
Now things come alive all over town,
It happens every night when the sun goes down.
We all know the boys and the girls are doing it.
Yeah, we all know the boys and the girls are doing it.

Torn outta passion with a passion to survive,
Can't stop believing, it's staying alive.
Susie told her mama and her mama told her dad,
They looked in the book and the book said "bad".
We all know the boys and the girls are doing it.
Yeah, we all know the boys and the girls are doing it.

Do you wonder,
Do you wonder what they're doin'?
Everything you think they are
And what they're just inventing.
Everything they need to do
And cannot do without.
Everything everybody does,
You know what I'm talking about.

We all know the boys and the girls are doing it.
Yeah, we all know the boys and the girls are doing it.
Yeah, we all know there's somebody disapproving it.
We all know the boys and the girls are doing it.
Doing it!

Torn outta passion with a passion to survive,
Can't stop believing, it's staying alive.
Gloss on the lipstick shining like a fire,
Out on the highway, back seat of a car.
We all know the boys and the girls are doing it.
Yeah, we all know the boys and the girls are doing it.
Yeah, we all know there's somebody disapproving it.
We all know the boys and the girls are doing it.

Yeah, we all know the boys and the girls are doing it.
Well, we all know the boys and the girls are doing it.

Well, we all know there's somebody disapproving it.
We all know the boys and the girls are doing it.
Doing it! Doing it!
