Took from me all that I had
With my soul and spirit dead
Killing everything in me, why does one used to be free
Now to drive away the pain, I'll destroy all I disdain
I'll become what I despise, Living someone else's life
(Don't back down)

Don't ever back down, Don't ever turn around
My end has come for now I come for you

Now obsession rules my mind, this commotion makes me blind,
searching out whoever lied, Oh I've stolen away my life
But I'm already dead

Don't ever back down, Don't ever turn around
My end has come for now I come for you

You take my everything
I'll take your dying breath
I can't feel anything, I've lived to see you do your thing
Your heart will bleed, As mine has chosen this breath
Feel your to a dying threat, 'cause I WONT BACK DOWN

Don't ever back down, Don't ever turn around
My end has come for now I come for you
(don't back down)

I'll drive you down, I'll beat you to the ground (don't back down 2x) (in background)
My end has come for now I come for you (don't back down) (in background)
(don't back down)
