Wandering Eyes
Performed by Nuttin' Nyce

Hey fella
I want to get to know you better
I want to know your name
And just who you are
And every time I see you
You're with another
But when she turns her back
You're giving me eye contact

I see you and you see me
Can't you tell its destiny
So please stop acting shy
Please stop acting fly
Come meet the object
Of your wandering eye

(Wandering eyes) I really want to know you
(Wandering eyes) Baby let me show you
(Wandering eyes) I can do it better
Wandering eyes
Wandering eyes

You love to hear the story
Again and again
Of how it all got started
Way back when
I caught your eyes
And they were wandering
I knew inside you're mind
Cause you were wandering
Yeah Boo I know that you see me
Looking at my body
Like I had on a bikini
And just maybe baby
You would sweat me
Lose your date
Come over here and get me
I get the vibe

That you want to be near
So bring your body
And your wandering eyes here

(Wandering eyes) I really want to know you
(Wandering eyes) Baby let me show you
(Wandering eyes) I can make it better
Wandering eyes
Wandering eyes

Hey fella
Once I got to know you
I got a chance to see
Just how you really are
And every time I'm with you
I catch you staring at another
Cause when I turn my back
You're giving her eye contact

I see you
You don't see me
That's not how it was supposed to be
You really can't get by
You really can't survive
If you don't control you're wandering eyes

(Wandering eyes) Oh yeah baby
(Wandering eyes) I thought that we could make it
(Wandering eyes) I know you'll never change these
Wandering eyes
