I ain't no queen of hearts,
I go through stages
I fall in love
Then complicate it
Yeah, you know the feeling
Without much hope
Just blind ambition
Pretending that there's nothing missing
I always kept believing

That more
I thought if I had more
I wouldn't get so bored
But everything just left me empty
Love walking in and out of my door
Wasn't good enough no more
When I don't trust myself, life really sucks

And the first time, I thought it but I didn't do it
Last time, that's when I really blew it
So this time I'm gonna do it different
'cause I know, I know, I know
If I put everything I have into it
Eventually, I'm gonna get what's good for me

I'm just trying to be creative
But everyone's so opinionated
They wanna tell me what I'm feeling
'cause one man's junk's another's treasure
When it's done it's hard to measure
I'll keep from believing

That more
If only I had more
I wouldn't get so bored
But I know it's gonna leave me empty
Life walking in and out of my door
Wasn't good enough no more
When I don't trust myself, I'm gonna get stuck with it

The first time, I thought it but I didn't do it

Last time, that's when I really blew it
So this time I'm gonna do it different
'cause I know, I know, I know
If I put everything I have into it
Eventually, I'm gonna get what's good for me

'cause I don't want to Live my life wonderin'
If only
I would
I should
I could
But I didn't
'cause I only blame myself again, yeah, yeah

The first time I thought it but I didn't do it
Last time, that's when I really blew it
So this time, this time, this time, yeah
If I put everything I have into it
Eventually, I'm gonna get what's good for me
