Glasses dirty, the drinks are dead. Happy birthday, have this you said We're color coded, we're coded red. Those are words you used to say

Ahhhhh....Bring it home to me, bring it home

Trees are heavy, and I am gray. Those are dragons we used to slay
you used to say

Ahhhh.....Ahhhh.....Ahhhhh.....Bring it home to me, bring it home

I remember the slipper Room. I can see you walking on the moon

I remember, I do recall all the games we used to play Those are things I won't forget. Those are kicks we used to play

you used to say.

Ahhh.....Ahhhhh... Bring it home to me, bring it home
