"Rise And Fall"

Runnin' high, runnin' low and it's down the road we go and it's hard, hard times
Can't you see where we been, you know we can't do that again, but it's hard, hard times
Through the long dark night we kept our hopes held high Hopin' to find what we'd all been prayin' for
On a pathway filled with lies we still manage to get by,
but it's hard,
hard times
And it's a run for the money, run down to the show to rock'n'roll
After all these years of tryin', tell me is it really worth it all to rise'n fall
And it all goes by so fast, it hardly ever lasts and there's always someone who wants more
And this feeling deep inside I've tried so hard to hide,
but it's hard,
hard times
Runnin' high, gonna be hard, hard times
