God help me this time
I'm really tryin to try
I just feel like I'm waiting
For nothing
I float on a line
My heart's been pounding all day
Like I've been running away
I know this evening
You'll be sleeping where I wanna be

Chorus

Maybe I'll just run away
Maybe I'll just run away
Maybe I'll just run away
Till I cry you outta me
Till I cry you outta me

We could meet in my mind
Leave this all behind
I just wanna taste you
Face you
Reflect in your eyes

Chorus

I start to shake and my breathing has no meaning
And I'm living and breathing a lie
I don't notice that I'm half-alive

God help me this time
I'm really trying to try...
Oh

Chorus
