Slowing tempo, no place to go
Kill yourself just for the show
Go slowly gay to waste away
Cause we're moving on up to the final day

So hear me now eld, 'fore your fields start to grow
Your mind will stop and your heart will slow
I've got a girl that I want you to meet
She's called the end of time and she's really sweet

Cryogenic lover
With a life to last, you know we won't need each other
Cryogenic lover
Cause nobody's gonna know
Just new words to the same old song
Once bidden, twice shattered till the dream is gone
One massive blow to the time we go
Of a life that's black and cold as cold

Cryogenic lover
With a life to last, you know we won't need each other
Cryogenic lover
Cause nobody's gonna know
Cryogenic lover
With a life to last, you know we won't need each other
Cryogenic lover
Cause nobody's gonna know
The body's the tomb to the soul
You're born and you die, you grow old
And that's just the way that it goes
