Everyone knows that it's over
I told them the things that we've planned
But they've never seen you walking with me
And somehow they don't understand

All that's left for us is sorrow
And a pair of broken hearts
We must face each blue tomorrow
With a pair of broken hearts

True love never has a chance dear
When a foolish quarrel starts
So we paid for our romance dear
With a pair of broken hearts

All that's left for us is sorrow
And a pair of broken hearts
We must face each blue tomorrow
With a pair of broken hearts

True love never has a chance dear
When a foolish quarrel starts
So we paid for our romance dear
With a pair of broken hearts
