Blue smoke goes drifting by
Into the deep blue sky
And when I think of home
I sadly sigh
Oh I can see you there
With loving tears in your eyes
As we finally said our last good byes
And as I sailed away with a longing to stay
I promised I'd be true and love only you
Blue smoke goes drifting by into the deep blue sky
My memories of home will never die
Blue smoke goes drifting by into the deep blue sky
My memories of home will never die
