VERSE 1:

Even though you passed me by
I still hold onto the light in your eyes
And the rose in my room
Doesn't grow, never will
And your in my head, and your in my head
Ohhhhhhh

CHORUS:

We share the same space
We are the same, so I
Don't understand why things are this way
Two people forced to turn *their* backs and walk away
Because they could not communicate how much they wanna stay

VERSE 2:

From the moment we met
Until the day I let it go
You brought out a shine
On the death-rowe chambers floor
And although we're apart
My heart is with you
My heart is with you

CHORUS:

We share the same space
We are the same, so I
Don't understand why things are this way
Two people forced to turn their backs and walk away
Because they could not communicate how much they wanna stay

Don't walk away
Don't walk away
Don't walk away

CHORUSx2:

We share the same space
We are the same, so I
Don't understand why things are this way
Two people forced to turn their backs and walk away
Because they could not communicate how much they wanna stay

Could not communicate how much they want to stay
