This is not the sweet love story of embraces this is nothing special not a protest song

Something borne in the dawn it's just a simple tune
a song dedicated to the moon

And I find myself talking to the flowers and the funny thing's they seem they've understood

I've been searching for God cause I was feeling blue searching for the missing truth dedicated to the world
dedicated to you
dedicated to the people in love dedicated to the moon

And I'd like to stay two hundred million hours And forget the million things I have to do

I've been waiting so long oh Lord that is the truth waiting for this talk with you
dedicated to the people in love

Yes I've been waiting oh I've been waiting so long dedicated to the people in love
