Sarah Sarah no no, don't cry now at last you have got back your man ain't it fine no more lonely nights and you're crying I don't understand what's worrying you again, your double personality?
Don't you think that the biggest lie is still better than your jealousy

Sarah Sarah no don't cry Sarah Sarah you're his wife well you cheat to win back all his love Oh Sarah don't cry oh no he doesn't mind

Sarah Sarah you've seen the light in his eyes now he wants you again Sarah by day and who by night but the heart and love are just the same I know you hide this game and that you do it only for love
Don't be afraid and sleep well tonight you've your man that's all you wanted above all
