"Why Me"

Why me, why me oh baby baby tell me why

Four o'clock in the night and I just can not close my eyes cause now that you have gone this is not living just holding on

I was blaming you you were blaming me and this is not the way that love should be I gave you all my life I got back lies

Why me, why me oh baby baby why
why me, why me oh baby baby tell me why

What is good what is bad love's got no rules and that's so sad when you offer your life all you get back is tears to cry

And sometimes I wish that you'd just pretend that you loved me though it is not true if you'd just make believe I wouldn't feel blue why me, why me...

you let me let me down
why me why me
you hurt this heart of mine, why me
