This jokes getting old
And I never heard anybody laughing but yourself
I don't know what it is you have
That I just don't seem to possess
But I can tell you I don't want
One god damn piece of it

You're bringing us all down
Can't you see we are all one and the same?
You're bringing us all down
And there's nothing left for you to say to me

Is it so hard to picture us seeing eye to eye?

Maybe one day it won't make a difference

You may be looking down at me
But I'm not looking up at you
I'm looking straight through you
And past all of this

You're bringing us all down
And I'm tired of being caught up in this game
You're bringing us all down
And there's nothing left for me to say to you

You're bringing yourself down
(Bringing yourself down)
Your bringing us all down
You're bringing yourself down
(Bringing us all down)
Bringing us all down
