They say to take these pills for stress
But my mind still can't fucking sleep
I'm so restless...
And my body's beat

Staring at these walls that are surrounding me
There's no open doors, there's no room to breathe
Whatever god has locked us in here has thrown away the key
The only thing I'll be praying for tonight is some sleep

We are the restless and we don't believe
We are the restless and we never sleep
We are the restless and we don't believe
We are the restless and we never sleep

Our spirits stay strong when our bodies are weak
We will still push on even when the future looks bleak
Our spirits stay strong when our bodies are weak
We will still push on even when the future looks bleak

We are the restless and we don't believe
We are the restless and we never sleep
We are the restless and we don't believe
We are the restless and we never sleep

We never sleep!
