(Ray Evans - Jay Livingston)

To be beside you could I ask for more
Each thrill beside you so worth waiting for
Such lips never have been I'm in a spin
When we touch lips I go dancing in the sky.

I sigh beside you through winter's storm
For here beside you I'm forever warm
I must be feeling day dreams it isn't any crime
To want to be beside you 'til there's no more time.

I sigh beside you through winter's storm
For here beside you I'm forever warm
I must be feeling day dreams it isn't any crime
To want to be beside you 'til there's no more time.

I want to be beside you 'til there's no more time...
