DROWNING IN MY TEARS

(Ken Lane - Irving Taylor)

© '68 Sands Music

I've cried so much over you and I'm drowning in my tears
Oh it's no wonder I'm going under drowning in my tears You hurt me so in many ways and I spent so many years Walking and thinking so now I'm a sinking drowning in my tears
I keep on crying for help but you turned your back on me
I'm over my head in misery
I guess I'll go on this way till all of me disappears
Live in a bubble and in my trouble drowning in my tears
(I keep on crying for help but you turned your back on me)
I'm over my head in misery
I guess I'll go on this way till all of me disappears
