The parachute jump the parachute jump
It's thrilling to do a dance that's new the parachute jump
When the music begins to rise
Then you begin to glide Bouncing from side to side the parachute jump.

You leap into space smile on your face But what do you know down there below the world is in place
Hold it steady so you won't slip Atta boy let her rip
Then you begin to dip, the parachute jump.

You dance and when you dance the angels are singing songs from high on the blue You dance so high a dance suddenly heavens doors are open to view
You sway and as you sway
All of your dreams it seems are coming true
You whirl into a spin Loving the spin you're in when you do, do, do.

Parachute jump, the parachute jump
You drop and drop and pop you stop and land with a bump
If you really would like to fly Feel like a bird on high Take my advice and try the parachute jump (Parachute jump, the parachute jump, jump, jump, jump, jump, jump)
(The parachute jump...)
