Where the blue and lonely go
Where the music's loud and clear
It's the only place I know
Where the blue and lonely go.

The street light served to light my way
As I make my way downtown
To one of many nightspots I know
Where they're all found.

Yes, I'm back again to the lonely life
A life that many know
Soon I'll be there with a glass of wine
Where the blue and lonely go.

Where the blue and lonely go
Where the music's loud and clear
It's the only place I know
Where the blue and lonely go.

There was a time when I had love
And I tried so to be free
From the life that I was used to
It was just too hard for me.

Now as I try to keep my heart
From letting mem'ries show
I pretend that I'm so happy here
Where the blue and lonely go.

Where the blue and lonely go
Where the music's loud and clear
It's the only place I know
Where the blue and lonely go.

(Where the blue and lonely go
Where the music's loud and clear
It's the only place I know

Where the blue and lonely go.)

(Where the blue and lonely go
Where the music's loud and clear
It's the only place I know
Where the blue and lonely go...)
