"Alone With A Loaded Gun"

I don't quite understand my actions.
I don't quite understand what's wrong.
Stench of sweat and tears.
It's time to face my fears.
The taste of metal in my mouth. I feel abused.
It's hard to face of the truth, A day anew.

Can someone save my soul.
Can someone save me now.
I'm alone with a loaded gun,
Please stop me.

I just wish that I was that headstrong.
And I wish I could stay with you.
I'm cold, my hands are shaking.
I'm down, my body's aching.
The taste of metal in my mouth. I feel abused.
It's hard to face of the truth, A day anew.

Can someone save my soul.
Can someone save me now.
I'm alone with a loaded gun,
Please stop me.

Alone with a loaded gun!
Alone with a loaded gun!

Can someone save my soul.
Can someone save me now.
I'm alone with a loaded gun,
Please stop me.

I've suffered long enough
And when all hope is gone.
I'm alone with a loaded gun,
Please stop me.
